"I don't measure a man's success by how high he climbs but how high he bounces when he hits bottom." -George S. Patton

Wow. High School went just as fast as I heard it would. I've had so many great times these four years here. I found a home in the music department, where I made lots of great friends who helped me get through high school. Football was an amazing experience. I learned so much from it and gained so many awesome friends. It was an experience I will never forget. Mom and Dad, thank you so much for teaching me the value of hard work. Without them I could never have made it through high school the way I did. Sean, you're my best friend and brother, and having you there growing up with me has made me who I am. Thank you for being there, and getting me to do football. Danielle, you've been an awesome sister, and I hope you have as great a high school experience as your brothers. Nicole, having you by my side has been the best thing ever. You have made me the happiest I've ever been. I love you so much :) I'll miss everyone so much next year. DR ZS MB ET SB BS KF MFB & NP <3

"Try not to become a man of success, but rather to become a man of value."
-Albert Einstein

Congrats class of 2013! Everyone was right when they said "High school flies by." Because it feels like every year is going by faster than the last. I still remember coming to Harwich in second grade, and now I'm a senior with almost all the same kids I met 10 years ago. Thanks to everyone that has gotten me through it all, especially my mom, dad and the rest of my friends and family. High school was full of ups and downs that have changed me drastically but I'm ready for the real world and that's thanks to everyone in and out of school. Good luck everyone, we made it!

"If you believe in yourself and with a tiny pinch of magic, all your dreams can come true." -Sponge Bob SquarePants

It's been an incredible 4 years here at Harwich High, I am happy for all the memories that have been made during my classes, with friends, exchange students, during Pit Bands of Jesus Christ Superstar, Urinetown the Musical, and the Harwich Sailing seasons 2012-2013. All the challenges that I faced could not have been overcome with the help of my Mom, Dad, Heidi, Coach Kelly and the teachers here at Harwich; so THANK YOU! A shout out to ES, MH, AH, MD, BL, KC, AF, AC, (CC, BB, KM, JG, LP, MD) for making my transition into and out of high school so memorable. To the class of 2013: I started and ended grade school with a fantastic group of people, we are all so talented! I'm sure if we put our minds to it, we can change the world a little bit at a time. I wish you all the best as we separate and go our own ways. We are a class to be remembered; we're the last to graduate in the old Harwich building! Good luck 2013! Once a Rough Rider, always a Rough Rider!

"I think the most important thing about music is the sense of escape."
-Thom Yorke

These past thirteen years have brought me forward, not always on the path I aimed for, but always forward. For The past thirteen years I've built my life around certain aspects of life, school, friends, family, and music. I can't say I'll miss a lot of it, because I've always aspired to move on to where I need to be (which is elsewhere), but I can say that I will always remember it. If there is anything I've learned in these past 13 years, it's that it up to us to make the best out of the impossible. Harwich High School brought me forward on my last step of these past thirteen years, and now it's time to find my next path. Oh, and thank you H.E. for everything.

My best friends: NR, SB, MM, EM, GS, TN, and EF for the best memories and laughs we've had together. You guys will always be my closest friends no matter where the future takes us. And Sadie, thank you for being the biggest support anyone could have asked for <3

"Moving on, is a simple thing, what it leaves behind is hard." - Dave Mustaine

These last few years have been a fun and strange experience and I'm surprised I made it this far. I know I have definitely changed in every sense of the word during my time here and I know that those changes will assist me so much in my future. Thanks to everyone that helped and supported me along the way and you know who you are. I have no clue what the future holds but I'm hoping it's going to be better than I think it will be.

"Midway upon the journey of our life I found myself within a forest dark, for the straightforward pathway had been lost." - Dante Alighieri

My dear freshmen, sophomores, juniors and also my fellow seniors "I have called you together for three purposes. First of all, to tell you that I am immensely fond of all of you all. I don't know half of you half as well as I should like and I like less than half of you half as well as you deserve." Secondly to celebrate me and my fellow seniors' graduation. It seems so long ago that we were freshmen and thought graduation and senior year were just little things we wouldn't have to think about for years to come. But now it's here on us and all we can do is push on through and accept it. "Thirdly, I wish to make an announcement: I regret to announce that this is the end. I am going. I am leaving now. Good - bye!"

I can't believe its already senior year. It seems like it was just yesterday that we were walking into high school for the first time. The time has come for us to take the next step in life. I believe that we have all been well prepared. I want to thank all of my teachers for pushing me and helping me to strive for higher goals. "I don't know the key to success, but the key to failure is trying to please everybody." -Bill Cosby

I may not be proud of each thing I said or every action I made, but I have no regrets. It has taken me seventeen years to find myself, but I finally have. It does not matter if we are ready, we are going anyway. I owe everything to my family and my friends. My family gives more support than I know what to do with. And Katherine, thank you for being by my side at every turn and beside the phone for every meltdown. Ross, thank you for being more than I could ever know to ask for. BM, BR, CH, DL, DS, HG, JM, KM, MAD, NL, NEP, SWA, and SM, thank you for the fun times: the powwows, the beach dates, and the DQ takeovers. Ali, thank you for being my childhood companion; and Nicole, thank you for sticking with me through the tough years. I never want to forget the time I have spent walking on Cape Cod beaches, laughing, and living. And I do not want to be separated from all the people that I love so much, but it's time to move forward.

"We all make choices, but in the end, our choices make us." - Andrew Ryan, Bioshock

I came to the Harwich school system in 5th grade and I was that weird girl from California. Luckily, I make friends, and I owe a lot to them. Some I no longer talk to, others I see A LOT, and I'd like to say thank you to all of them. You helped me become who I am right now, and I could not have accomplished anything without your guys' support and critique. Then there's my parents. They are everything to me, and they have given me everything I've ever wanted or needed, and I have them to thank most of all for my successes throughout school. Without their love, understanding, and support I have no idea where I would be. Thank you everyone. I owe you all a lot.

Rebecca Godbout

"Never regret anything because at one time it was exactly what you wanted."

I want to thank My Mom, she's that best person in the world and I don't know what I would do without her, if it wasn't for her I could not have handled school, let alone these four years. She's the most Fabulous Mom anyone could wish for. I Love You Mom and Thank You. For Everything! I can't believe its senior year. It seems as though I only just got here. I showed up at this high school alone and intimated about being somewhere new. I want to say thank you to everyone that through the years have just smiled in the hallways and said hello. It makes the day just that much better. I want to thank Mrs. Callagy for everything that she has done to help me through these quick four years. We made it!!! I can't believe it, thinking about it, I want to cry. I don't know what life holds from here but I do know that the road doesn't stop coming, we just have to continue onward up this uphill road

It's really strange to think that after all these years; it's finally my turn to occupy this coveted spot in the yearbook. My experiences here in high school have definitely been some of the most challenging and rewarding of my life thus far. I can't really do them justice without acknowledging some of the amazing people who have been with me every step of the way. To my parents, thank you for supporting me and believing in me. Dad, special thanks to you for letting me borrow your car so often. To my sister, I can only hope that you represent the Gorman name proudly throughout these upcoming years. To Marissa, Dominic, Nick, and all of my other friends, thank you for truly being the best people I've ever met in my entire life. You have no idea how much I'll miss every single one of you. I'll never forget some of the memories here and the people who I've created them with. To all that matter, thank you so much. I can't wait to see what the future has in store for me.

From the chicken noodle soup and ginger ale to the birthday parties. Thanks.ily! "I'll open the window and let whatever roll in. And if there's no breeze, that's cool with me. I'll just raise my sail, and wait on the wind" – Eric Church, Livin' Part of Life

It hasn't really hit me yet that we're seniors. I don't think it ever really will until that day when those blue and white caps are up in the air, and we're hugging everybody goodbye. But we have to remember that it's not goodbye, it's always "I'll see you later". We'll run into each other again. The cape is small, and almost all of us end up back home, but until we're all back home I want to say thank you to everybody who has been there for me during the past few years. Landon, you're not only my boyfriend, but my best friend. I don't think I could have made it this far without the "annoying kid in photography". You're my rock. I love you <3 To Mama and Daddy, I might not be the perfect kid, but I try my best. You guys have really helped shape me. Thank you so much. To AH, MM, AS, JA, JM, HG, thank you. You've all been the best of friends. I love you all. And to the kids I've grown up with since kindergarten, we made it, finally!

Congratulations to the greatest class of classes. 2013 is the year where everything we've prepared for starts to come into play. We have to show everyone what we're made of! For the years that I've been at Harwich high it has made my experience at high school one of the greatest experiences in life so far. The students, the teachers, the long hallway... Everyone has made every moment something to remember. The friends and relationships have helped me become the person I am today and what I will be in the future. I couldn't have done it without everyone. So thank you, seriously. To all my best friends I would be nothing without you and you know who you are. WPWW

Well, here we are class of 2013! We made it! This is such a bittersweet experience. I can remember years ago being in middle school and I couldn't wait to be in the position that I am now. Time has really flown by all these years, and I am so blessed that this journey has had so many positive memories. I'd like to thank my teachers and friends for being so supportive throughout the years. I am excited for the journeys ahead that all of us will face, and the successes we all will achieve in our lives. I want to especially thank Ms. Richard for making these last few years such a wonderful and admirable experience, she made me realize that even on your worst day, coming to her class, singing, and being yourself was the best medicine. Not only is she my singing teacher, but she is my hero. Last but not least I want to thank TG,NH,AS,HB,BL,SP,EP,AG,JB,JD,GA,and KS. Thank you guys for making these last few years memorable and enjoyable! I'll miss u all! Congrats class of 2013! It's been great! I wish you all the best!

Ahh senior year, the year I have been waiting for is finally here. It has come by so fast and I have met many new people along my journey. My high school experience has been bittersweet because I had to move down to the cape my sophomore year. Even though I missed my friends and the environment I have been around since I was in kindergarten I wouldn't change a thing. My experience here at Harwich High made me a stronger and more independent individual. I've learned to be myself and never to change for anyone. I'd like to thank my family for enduring our struggles through the years, my best friend Liz Backus who's always been there for me and is like a sister to me, my best friend Hannah Zion who even though we don't live near each other anymore we still keep in touch and support each other through everything. My family Ms. Chilaka who has always encouraged to try my best even if you may not succeed the first time, my cousins AG,TG, my friends AS,JD,NH, for being there for me. And Mr. Heggi for helping me with my academics and staying on top of things.

Cliché as it is, I kind of want to start out by saying that it's totally true: these four years passed by before I had any idea they'd even happened. Although it seems so short looking back, there was so much that made my time at Harwich worth it. I think the biggest thing I'll be taking with me is my character. I've met so many crazy, hilarious, kind, understanding, and friendly people who will always be engraved in who I am, wherever I may go. They've made me the person I am today. I think two of the craziest girls I met were Marissa D. and Hannah G. On really slow days that seemed to drag into eternity, they always had something ridiculous or witty to say, and the only thing you'd find us doing in our classes was laughing hysterically. Of course, there's dozens of others who were there for me whenever I needed someone to listen. But the powwow group is the unique collection of friends who will always be in my memory and heart wherever I end up or whatever I do. I'll miss all you guys!!!

These past four years here at Harwich High School were some of the best I've ever had. When I walked into this building as a freshman, I never imagined the experiences I've had would impact me so greatly. To all of my teachers, I thank you for always believing in me and for pushing me to do my best. You all have been truly inspirational. To my friends, I would have never been able to get through without your support and friendship. You know who you are. A special thank you to everyone in the Arts department; that wing has become a second home to me, and I can't imagine how my life here at HHS would have been without it. And finally, to my family, you have always been there for me, but I've never really said how much I appreciate it until now. Thank you for your endless support, and I know that you'll continue to be there for me whenever I need you. Way to go Class of 2013, we made it!

Wow...High school goes by a lot faster than one would think. I can remember freshman year thinking, "I can't believe I have to go through four years of this." Now it's finally over, honestly I will miss my fellow seniors but I am so happy this is over. Best Friend..., I'm gonna miss you so much, good luck with life. I want to thank all of my teachers for helping me through the years but I especially want to thank Ms. Richard. She has done so much for me, more than I could ever have wished for. She helped me to open up and be myself. I wouldn't be me without her! I also want to thank her for being the only teacher in my entire school career that ever spelled my last name right. It doesn't sound like a big deal but there is an accent mark over the "o" in my last name. It makes a difference and she is the only teacher to ever get it right. THANK YOU!!! Good bye Harwich High School, and congrats class of 2013, we finally made it!

I can't believe we are seniors! All these years in school have flown by so fast. Even though I can't wait to graduate and take the next step in my life, I going to miss high school so much. I want to thank all of my teachers, coaches and especially my friends. You guys have helped me through so much and been with me for everything, good and bad. Especially Shelbie. I LOVE YOU. You have helped me through so much. I have no idea what I would do without you. And of course my parents. 2013? Did you say 2013? Yes! It is finally our time! I can't believe that it is now our time to move on. As we are closing one chapter, it's time to begin another. The past four years have been nothing but a whirlwind of emotions, but that's high school. Seeing familiar faces everyday for most of my life will soon be replaced, but will never be forgotten. I would like to thank my teachers and coaches. Your positive attitudes and encouragement have lead me to prosper into a great student and athlete. School allows you to explore your freedoms and who you are as person and in doing that you find your best friends. Morgan and Nicole, I love you! I don't know where I would be without you two. And to my number one supporters-my family. Thank you for your unconditional love and support, as well as driving me to be my best. Best of luck to everyone in the Class of 2013! Congratulations, we did it!

Wow, senior year is here already. Hard to think that it's already been four years since we walked through those doors and started the long climb up the ladder. Along the way I think that we've all had some highs and some lows, but personally I am pretty happy with how everything turned out. I've ridded ourselves of friends, but made more than I lost. I know that I had some hard times, but the good times were far more frequent. While I may not know all of you guys very well, you have all made these four years what they are, and all in all they've been pretty damn good. For those of you who have really stuck by me every single time that the going got tough, thank you, you guys know who you are. Thanks to my team, friends and especially to my family for making my time out of school as much fun as it could be, you guys mean more to me than I can say in a single statement. I wish everyone in our class the very best in everything that you guys do, sky's the limit for our class. No initials, you guys know who you are. -Jack

Here we are at the end of a road we never thought we'd finish, and the beginning of a road that we hope will never end. To the class of 2013, it's been real. It's only taken us 12 years but we've finally grown to know each other, and accept each other for who we are. It's been a rough ride (ha.) but when push comes to shove, we would never fail to show who the best class in Harwich High School is! Thank you to all you guys for putting up with my weirdness, I really appreciate it. All of my thanks go straight to my lovely family, my Mom, my Poppy, everyone. Especially my Daddy, I would have never been able to get through this without you! I love you! It means a lot and your help is much appreciated. Goodbye HHS.

It might be the last time we do that stuff together for a while so let's really just do it up okay? Daddy. You are amazing. You've been through so much but you hung in there. I know that I'm not quite happy, I know I'm not quite sad,
I can't quite name the feeling but that's not all too bad.

I won't miss any of you, for those whom I would won't leave;
my friends are few but precious, I can't find the need to grieve.

So if I am not quite happy, nor am I quite sad,
I suppose I'd say these past years have left me fairly glad.

Truth be told, I'll find some longing left for this time, but now is the time of saying goodbye; Au revoir, I conclude my rhyme.

I want to say thank you to my friends, who all made these last for years a helluva lot of fun and a good experience in general. DL, NL, JM, KJ, HG, MD, HG, SA, NP, MB, AC, SM, let's hope I didn't forget anyone.

My years in the Harwich Public Schools have been some of the best years in my long, long life; in Harwich High especially. It was here in Harwich High that I made some of the best friends I'll keep until the day I die and learned lessons that I'll never forget. My fellow classmates all helped me grow as a person from Kindergarten through Senior year. The character of our student body is unparalleled; a school filled with selfless individuals helping others. It is with sadness that I will say farewell to Harwich High School and all the souls I've grown to love.

"The second you stop caring about things that bring you down, is the second you start living."

There is so much to say but no way to put it in words. Justus, Cooper and Taylor, it all started with you guys. I have been through hell and back with each of you and it just makes us like family. To everyone else in this crazy, messed up group of friends, I want to thank you for making these four years what they were and for all the support I got when joining the Marines. I have to say it will be weird not being at my house with all of you, we certainly had some good times in that room. Thank you all so much. Semper Fi. I'll see you when I get back.

"For me, it is far better to grasp the Universe as it really is than to persist in delusion, however satisfying and reassuring."

I'll be glad to leave HHS. Sure, I've had nice times here, but it'll be great to finally be able to do things on my own for once. I suppose I should thank a few people here too, like Mr. Breski, for helping me learn how to program, and Mr. Bates and Mr. Russell, for being terrific Mock Trial coaches. And thanks to anyone who actually put up with being my friend – I owe my sanity during the last few years to you guys, and you all hopefully know who you are. Do not cry because I am leaving. Smile because I was here.

2013, we made it! I can't believe we are finally graduating, it seems like just the other day I was walking through the doors of HHS for the first time. To my family even though may be crazy you're the only family I would ever want, love you! Thank you so much to my parents for always being there for me no matter what, I wouldn't be the person I am today without you. To my RHC girls you're like my second family and I don't know what I would do without dance and you guys in my life. To my friends, thanks for always being there when I needed somebody to talk to, I'm going to miss all of our crazy, and sometimes pointless conversations that seem to go on forever. I am to miss everybody so much, but it is time for us to follow our dreams and see the world.

Nicole Peckham

WOW. I can't believe that my time here in HHS is over, and we're all moving on. Thank you to everyone who made my success possible! Laur, thanks for letting me join you in our super special girl guitar club! You made my two years of band the greatest. Morgan and Kori, thanks for always keeping me sane, and letting me vent whenever I needed it! Kelly—thanks for being my best friend, I love all of our midnight driving! Marissa and Dom—thanks for being the voices to my music. To all the powwow kids, thanks for always having my back when I needed it. To all the kids who struggled through AP classes with me—you guys made my days here fun! To Seth, who spent over half of his time here with me—thank you so much for being there for me whenever I needed you, and encouraging me to try new things. You will accomplish so much in life, if only you put your mind to it! I love you! And to (the best sister ever) Sam, who sadly only spent a year here with me—make a name for yourself!

It's been a hard struggle and a lot of work but I'm glad I made it. Looking forward to life out of high school but I'm going to miss some things about it (11:10, field trips, gym, FP, CC). A lot of people helped me and hopefully I helped a lot of people. I want to thank my parents and my siblings for helping me through everything and always being there – also Sowpel and M for giving me a second chance in life that I never would have had. Shout out to all my friends – been through a rough time but never forget the good times. Life's a team sport – I'm glad we all played our positions. DE NJ TM JE JF KA MB NG SG DG JA JB KT JG TP and anyone else I missed... I'm hoping for the best and prepared for the worst. Thanks for everything, Class of 2013 it's finally time to move on. Best of luck to you all.

These past years have flown by so quickly. I can't believe we're all about to leave each other and our cozy lives on Cape Cod. I have known a lot of you for at least 12 years and I will be sad to see everyone go. I know we will all find happiness and best of luck to everybody. I want to thank all of my family, especially my mom and Dottie. Thank you for helping me through school and all the stressful times. Thank you Nana and Papa, for loving and supporting me. Thank you to Josh Betts, for being the brother I never had. CT, TG, KM, thanks for being my best friends, and always being there for me. I love you. KC, HF, SM, JD, SC, KF, KS, SS, TH, CA, FD, NH, WP, KP, AS, EP, MM, MWx2, TW, and TM thanks for everything, love you all. To all my cheer girls, Marquise and Monomoy, I love you all so much and you're like family. To all my teachers and coaches throughout the 12 years, thank you. Good luck 2013!

I'm so glad to finally be done with high school, not to say I haven't enjoyed it or learned anything from it. I transferred to Harwich my junior year, because I wanted a change of scenery and like things to be constantly changing. I never expected it to be one of the best decisions I ever made. I want to thank my mom for always being there for me no matter what, and my grandparents for being the best role models someone could ask for. Jordan, you're my oldest and closest friend, and thank you so much for being such a great part of my life for the past 13 years, life would've been so incredibly boring without you. Zach, you helped me adjust to a new school with nothing but smiles, and Brett, you're pancakes are amazing and you're a better friend than anyone could ever give you credit for, best of luck in the military guys, you better write me. And Sam, you're everything I thought I never wanted, and I love you so much, thank you for everything. Good luck with life guys!

Well, I'm here. I didn't even imagine how many wonderful people I could met here. The only thing that I can say is that I'm thankful to everyone. To my family that gave me the chance to stay here, and because they are the best family that I could ever wish, to my Sister Kelly, because she is just the best, to my Cross Country Team, because they are like a second family. I'm the happiest person in the world right now. Thank you guys. Love you.

Can't believe 18 years have come and gone but I can't think of a better place to grow up or better people to do it with. Mama thank you for loving me no matter what. You're the best teacher I've ever had. Daddy thank you for always pushing me and making me laugh. Ry Guy I'm so lucky you're my little brother. For the most amazing four years so far. When I look back at my high school career, I see a lot of great times and a lot of hard work. I wouldn't have been able to get through it all without the support from my family. Mom and Dad I can't thank you enough, you have taught me so much and have shaped me into who I am today. Thank you Kimmy for everything you've done for me. You're the best! Hard to believe high school is coming to an end. Looking back, it's scary to see how far I've come since being the "new kid" in eighth grade. Without the friendships and support I got from everyone including teachers and coaches, I couldn't have made it this far. Through successful sport teams and unforgettable memories, we have truly left our mark on Harwich High School. As this new chapter begins in our lives, we can't forget those who have brought us all this way. To my best friends: TB.MM.SB.EF.GS.TN.EM thanks for all the memories. Coach Cat, not only were you a great coach, but a reliable friend as well. Thank you all and good luck to everyone on their journey!

Here we go, senior year. There are no words to describe my true feelings towards these years at Harwich High School. I have met the most amazing people in the world here and they have made me who I am today. I have learned so much and will continue to use what I have learned here throughout my life. I owe everything to my amazing group of friends that taught me to laugh, teachers that pushed me to succeed and my family that kept constant support and helped me get through every tough time. I am anxious to experience the world but I know that once I step out of that door I will miss every single one of you. Thank you for being a part of my life and my heart. Remember to always go forth with peace in your mind, love in your heart and a smile on your face through everything. This is not goodbye, it's see you later. I love you all.

Harwich High was where it all began, I'll never forget the days as a Rough Rider fan.-For the teachers who had me I thank all of you, and to all the others I bid you adieu. - Memories I will always remember, All the jitters in the beginning of September.- They were there for a definite reason, My parents I always did believe in.- But what really got me through was my eight man crew, The people who were with me and always stayed true.- From Mike Tyler and Eric to, Tommy Evan Stephen and Nick you guys will always be considered my clique.- And for those coaches who have taught me all the right life lessons, Mr. Bennett and Mr. Catanzaro your teachings will be with me till my ending

I never would have gotten to this point in my life without the support of my family and friends constantly pushing me along. Thanks for helping me get over all the bumps in the road. I can't believe that we're all going our separate ways. We spent almost our whole lives so far with the same people and now we have to go out into the world by ourselves. Good luck to you all, we are going to need it! Noah I'll never forget the brotherhood, don't worry. As for the Crew I love you guys, we are going to kill it no matter what happens.

"The innermachinations of my mind are an enigma." -Patrick Star

It's weird right now, writing about how I'm preparing to leave high school. It's difficult to sum up all that I've done in the last four years. I have a newfound confidence, a great outlook on life, and friends who I'll never forget about. Of course I don't think I would be who I am today without the support of my best bud Bretten Johnson, who's stuck by my side through all of high school, my loving music teacher Ms. Richard with the music goons SA and SB, where I found what I love through H2$ (Thank you Mrs. Donovan and Joe Burke), and my family's support. I should really point out the arts department and how it's helped me through high school. I don't think I would've survived without going into that music room at least three times a day. It's going to be a different life pretty soon, not being with my class anymore, the class I have been with since Kindergarten. Anyways, thanks Harwich High, it's been a long journey and I've loved every bit of it.

Samantha Thywissen

"The journey is the destination, man" -Gerald (from Hey Arnold)

I've been searching the horizon for this day for so long, it's disorienting to be practically standing over it. I'm thankful for all the people I've met and places I've been, and I'm ecstatic to come across people and places I have yet to see. Harwich High School had a lot of unique things to offer, and overall I think we're prepared to be good people wherever life brings us to.

Well here we all are. At the end of a long journey all the way from kindergarten to senior year. I'm not only proud of myself, but also of all of those who endured that journey along with me. I wish everyone the best in the years to come and I'd like to thank my parents and my friends for being there through this journey with its many ups and downs, but in the end we made it and here goes the biggest adventure we will ever embark on; life.

Over the past four years I have learned so much about myself and who I am. I will never forget all the good times I had in high school. I want to thank all of my family, friends, and teachers that supported me through school. This is one of the most important times of my life and I couldn't be happier. Thank you HHS.

Wow, I can't believe we are here. So many memories. Go legal eagles! Harwich Girls Tennis. Team Win! Good luck Emily and Abby! I have had a great time with my friends. Stephen, I can't believe we are still best friends after four years at different high schools. Juliette we have had a lot of fun and there has been a lot of bad puns along the way. Because you da bomb!! But seriously, these past twelve years have been amazing. You all have been really great to grow up around. I wish you all the best of luck in your future endeavors. Thank you to everyone, mom, dad, teachers, and fellow students who have helped me along the way. I would not be here without you.
